WELCOME 2016 SEASON OF PACKERS FOOTBALL

The Green Bay Packers organization is celebrating its 97th birthday this year, born August 11, 1919. On that summer evening a group of young athletes, summoned by Curly Lambeau, huddled in the dark editorial room of the old Green Bay Press Gazette and organized a football team. Curly's employer, the Indian Packing Company put up money for equipment, permitted the use of its athletic field for practice, and provided team jerseys. With this tie-in the "Packers" name was a natural fit. That first season projected a near-century legacy of winning as the team's record was 10 and 1. As for this 2016 NFL Season ...

GREEN BAY PACKERS
SEASON SCHEDULE

King of Arms hosted a variety of summer events, beginning with an Ice Cream Social on June 10. This first of its kind party offered residents an opportunity to meet and greet new neighbors and old friends. Patrons comprised an array of guests, including tree climbers and ice cream lovers. It was difficult to determine who was having more fun.

Summer activity continued with the King of Arms Rummage Sale providing a $275 profit for our neighborhood association.

July's festivities were highlighted with America's 240th Birthday Celebration and Fireworks Display. Neighbors gathered on the corner of Renaissance and Hillcrest for an evening of fun under a cascade of flashing lights.

Lueschow
Family
Spotlight

King of Arms is proud to showcase the Leuschow clan, one of our newest families. Previously from West De Pere, the Leuschow's moved into King of Arms in November 2015. The family includes Tyler, Sarah, and twins Piper Rose and Emerson Otto, who are celebrating their first birthday on September 29. Tyler is a General Manager at Schneider National. Prior to her new status as stay-at-home mom, Sarah worked in property management. Tyler and Sarah met while out with friends (not mutual friends) in May 2009. Their attraction was magnetic from the beginning, although Sarah was living in Tulsa, Oklahoma at the time. They kept in touch until she moved back (four months later), with one visit in between – and the rest is history. They married in April 2011.

Weekends are for family, say Tyler and Sarah. Tyler enjoys running and participating in many individual local races as well as team races, such as the Fall 50 in Door County and Run Away to the Bay (a race from Oshkosh to Green Bay). Busy mom Sarah enjoys the Packerland Parents Playgroup, which provides activities for the kids during the week, sometimes on the weekends, and a Monthly Moms Night Out. Sarah also hosts playgroups. Her domestic skills include a love of cooking and she is always working on a creative home project. A true homemaker, Sarah confesses that her kids and husband are her focal point and passion in life, along with spending quality time with both sides of the family as often as possible. Summer months are spent up North at Tyler's family's cabin.

The Lueschow Family Piper, Sarah, Emerson and Tyler

She loved it (King of Arms Neighborhood) so much that the Leuschow's returned, parked the car, and toured the whole neighborhood on foot.

When the twins were newly born, Sarah spent a lot of time in the car driving, a technique that would help the tots nap. As she drove, she sought out various neighborhoods with the vision of finding a new home. Their expanded family had outgrown their ranch-style home. On one particular nap-time tour, Sarah happened upon the King of Arms neighborhood. She loved it so much that the Leuschow's returned, parked the car, and toured the whole neighborhood on foot. There were quite a few houses for sale at the time so it was a great way to see many options. They were impressed with the level of care that King of Arms homeowners applied to their homes. Sarah also observed people enjoying the out of doors by walking or running, and they all were so friendly! The house that they would eventually purchase had a for-sale sign in the yard but was not an active listing. A few months later the home became available for sale, and after touring it they offered to buy it. Tyler and Sarah wanted to close in 60 days but they had to sell their De Pere home first, and they had not even placed it on the market. They had to rescind their offer to buy the Green Bay home, but stayed hopeful that they would find the perfect home. Almost magically, placing a for-sale sign in the front yard of their De Pere home, it sold in 36 hours. They offered again to buy the King of Arms home and the sellers accepted. Since living in King of Arms Tyler and Sarah appreciate their welcoming, friendly neighbors. Sarah shares, "We love our new house and neighbors. We couldn't be happier with our decision to move to King of Arms."

WELCOME EMILY TURRIFF NEIGHBORHOOD SUPPORT SPECIALIST

Emily Turriff began her new position as the City of Green Bay's new Neighborhood Support Specialist in early August. Born and raised in De Pere, Emily's higher education years were spent in La Crosse, WI, and Norman, OK, earning two degrees in Anthropology. Missing her family, Green Bay Packers, and believe it or not - Wisconsin weather - she was thrilled to move back to the Green Bay area for a job at Heritage Hill State Historical Park. Emily is an integral part of the neighborhood division team, "excited and eager to help residents of Green Bay learn about the history and importance of their neighborhoods, and help our neighborhood associations grow and thrive!"
